

Awards and Rewards Policy

We endeavour to ensure that all the children receive positive, genuine, feedback as frequently as it is humanly possible and as often as it is deserved. The following awards are presented during the school year.

1. AWARDS DAY

- a. Class Prizes: These are presented to one child in Key Stage 1 and one in Key Stage 2 for academic achievement. It takes into account a child's performance in set activities, bookwork, assessments and tests as well as their ability to sustain academic endeavour.

Typical recipient: A child who has achieved best overall results in their class.

- b. Achievement Prizes: Up to two can be awarded in each class Key Stage. They recognise the child's contribution to the academic, pastoral, extra-curricular and spiritual life of the school.

Typical recipient: A child who has made excellent progress and also contributed fully to the pastoral, extra-curricular and spiritual life of the school.

OR

A child who has worked particularly hard, has represented the values of the school, has participated widely and been prepared to work with others.

- c. Cups & Trophies: These are awarded to children in Upper Key Stage Two who have marked aptitude in all curriculum subjects.

Typical recipient: A child who has displayed particular aptitude for a subject, worked hard and achieved consistently excellent results.

2. ACHIEVEMENT ASSEMBLIES

- a. Executive Headteacher's Awards: One half termly Head's Award is available in every class from Years Reception – 6.

Typical recipient: A child who has made excellent personal progress academically and also displayed the dispositions needed for effective learning.

- b. Certificates: These are awarded in all classes for personal progress in a range of subjects

Typical recipient: a child who has consistently applied themselves to their learning and consequently made excellent progress.

Half termly, in the Achievement assembly, awards are given to the pupil who has collected the most Dojo points in that timeframe.

3. DOJO POINTS

Dojo points are awarded for good work or good behaviour.

4. OTHER CELEBRATIONS

Pupils' achievements both in and out of school are celebrated and pupils are encouraged to bring in medals and certificates achieved outside of school to share in their weekly assemblies. Match success, music exam and other achievements are also celebrated in these weekly assemblies where Pupil of the Week, Reader of the Week and Mathematician of the Week certificates will also be handed out.
